

Opposition or Opportunity

Difficult times are part of the lives of the wealthy, the poor, the good and the bad. There are many situations and circumstances that we can no power over, yet we can choose our response to them. It is our response to the conditions that creates the following circumstances.

Our internal thinking, attitudes, and emotions determine what we see, hear, and feel. This determines if we are put down through opposition or see the opportunity within the circumstances and become bigger and better.

There are eight steps in transforming Opposition into Opportunity.

1. Make the impossible possible by believing in yourself. "IM-_____"
2. Recognize Opposition as a road sign pointing to the "_____" way
3. Begin to "_____" and learn from your own Gifts, Passions, and Abilities your GPA
4. Determine to make "_____" choices through each and every situation and circumstance. "A little bit of something is better than all of nothing"
5. Accept "_____" as one of your Teachers and Trainers for the abundant life that is yours
6. Celebrate the new knowledge and resources that Opposition has revealed to you
7. Make your move forward based on _____
8. Stay in the process, celebrate the _____
